HUD Posts Public Housing Repositioning Webinar Materials

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has posted the materials for the webinar titled “Resident Relocation for Repositioning,” the latest in its series “Public Housing Repositioning,” which explains and discusses common issues in the repositioning process.

The webinar, held on December 6, 2023, explains the relocation requirements when PHAs undertake a disposition, demolition, or conversion action that requires permanent or temporary resident relocation, or there is a change in lease to Section 8 even if there is no physical displacement. The webinar also assists PHAs in understanding residents' relocation rights, highlights best practices, and informs PHAs about available housing and financial resources to assist with relocation.

The materials posted include the recording, slides, and transcript of the webinar.
