HUD Posts Materials for ConnectHome Virtual Summit

On the HUD Exchange News webpage, HUD's Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) announced that it has posted the materials for the three-day virtual summit on timely digital inclusion topics that was held for ConnectHomeUSA (CHUSA) communities, public housing authorities, tribes, multifamily housing owners and operators, public-private stakeholders, and others interested in digital inclusion.

During the event, which took place from October 25 to October 27, 2022, participants heard from a wide range of organizations, from federal agencies tasked with administering new broadband funding programs, private-sector stakeholders who provided updates about their programs, to CHUSA communities that had innovative programs to share. The summit featured training webinars and breakout sessions, which allowed participants to engage directly with speakers and leave with tools for continued growth.

The following webinars and associated materials from the summit have now been posted:

- Keynote Address by HUD Leadership & ACP Grant Programs Overview
- New ACP Enrollment Assistant Tool with EducationSuperHighway
- Two Strategies to Enhance Broadband Adoption
- Connecting to the New Federal Funding for Broadband
- Engaging Your State Broadband Leaders
- Regional Swap: CHUSA Best Practices from Other Regions
- Tools to Support Broadband Grant Applications
- ACP Q&A with CHUSA Stakeholder ISPs
- Success Stories in Communities

You can find more information on the summit, plus links to the webinars, materials, and other resources on this page at HUD's website.
