PD&R Updates Online Magazine, The Edge

HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) has published some updates to its online magazine, The Edge. One of the updates features considerations from PD&R's most recent Quarterly Update, where two panels discussed synergies between transit-oriented development (TOD)—which aims to create dense, walkable mixed-use areas around public transit stops—and affordable housing. In another update, PD&R presents the second article in a series on local opportunity acquisition models focusing on the Washington Housing Initiative. For other updates, including a message from PD&R leadership celebrating PD&R's accomplishments in driving HUD's mission forward, visit The Edge home page.
