PD&R Updates Online Magazine, The Edge

HUD’s Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) has published some updates to its online magazine, The Edge. One of the updates features an event that was held on June 18, 2024, by the Urban Institute in collaboration with the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation’s Policy for Action research program. The event, titled “Policies to Expand Equity-Oriented Affordable Housing,” consisted of three panel discussions in which policymakers, researchers, advocates, and other stakeholders explored the development and application of housing policies that affect racial and health equity. In another update, PD&R highlights a development in New Jersey that brings 72 units of accessible housing to low-income families and people with disabilities. For other updates, including a message from PD&R leadership celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month, visit The Edge home page.
