PIH Replaces 2022 Admin Fee Guidance Document

Today in the Federal Register, HUD's Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) published a notice correcting the "Notice of Annual Factors for Determining Administrative Fees for the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher, Mainstream, and Moderate Rehabilitation Programs for Calendar Year 2022" that was published on August 25, 2022. According to today's notice, the previous document omitted specific information and included incorrect website links. To clarify any misinformation, today's notice replaces the guidance published on August 25, 2022, in its entirety but does not change the annual factors for determining administrative fees.

For further details, please refer to the notice. You'll find links to the 2022 administrative fee tables and the documents that accompany them here on the Financial Management Center (FMC) webpage.

HUD Posts Several Documents on Emergency Housing Vouchers

On the HUD Exchange website, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has posted the "Emergency Housing Voucher Roadmap", which includes a set of brief topic guides designed to assist participating PHAs and partners in understanding the main components of the EHV program and strategies to expedite lease-up of vouchers and fully utilize funding. The EHV roadmaps are complementary documents to the EHV How to Guide for PHAs. There are nine topic guides in total. Each one provides key information on the relevant subject matter and outlines available resources for additional guidance. The documents posted include the following:

- Emergency Housing Vouchers 101
- Administrative and Service Fees
- Waivers and Alternative Requirements
- Referral Process
- Partnerships
- Serving Survivors
- Considerations for Rural Communities
- Pairing Services
- Advancing Equity (listed as "coming soon")

You can access the guides here.
