HUD Posts New RAD Photo Essay

On November 9, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) posted the latest in its series of photo essays, which documents the resident experience for properties that undergo conversions under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD). The latest essay focuses on how the Brenham Housing Authority in Texas turned to the RAD program and was able to finance rehabilitation, demolition, new construction, and temporary relocation of residents in order to transform its depleted housing into a beautiful and sustainable public resource for current and future generations.
