PIH Extends Deadline for PHAs to Participate in Testing Online 52723/52722 Forms

In an email Friday via HUD's Financial Management Division (FMD) mailing list, HUD's Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) announced that it has extended the deadline for PHAs to submit their interest in participating in the User Acceptance Testing (UAT) of the new online submission module for the forms HUD-52723 and HUD-52722. Executive directors should send an email with the subject "UAT PHA Participant" to opfundwebportal@hud.gov before November 28, 2022. The email should include the interested participant's name, the PHA name and code, and the participant's email address.

According to the email, PIH is working on replacing the Excel tools for the forms HUD-52723 and HUD-52722 with online forms in the operating fund web portal. The new online submission module includes resubmission, QC corrections, and revisions to the form HUD-52723 and HUD-52722. "The online submission module enhances the PHA's user experience and reduces the burden of the current process which involves completing and uploading Excel tools for PIH review. With your help, PIH can fine tune the module and accommodate any additional user requests and changes." The UAT is virtual and should take no more than six hours over two or three days.
