HUD Announces Latest in PHA Occupancy Webinar Series

On the HUD Exchange News webpage, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that it will be hosting the latest in its series of webinars on PHA occupancy. The trainings provide PHAs across the country with a series of requirements, conditions, and terms associated with each unit subcategory and improve the performance and management of operating subsidy funds. The training materials help gain a thorough understanding of a wide spectrum of topics related to occupancy as well as the knowledge on how to develop and implement solutions.

The latest scheduled webinar, titled "Physical Needs Assessment \(PNA\)," will improve PHA grantee knowledge about the PNA HUD resources and PNA resources to help house more families, assist with repositioning efforts, and identify capital needs.

The live web conference is scheduled for Wednesday, January 25, 2022, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Eastern time. Click here for more information, including instructions on how to register. Also, you can still register to attend the PASS Physical Condition and Public Housing Calculation Impact and Strategy webinars, which will be held on November 30 and December 21, respectively.
