HUD Releases NOFO and Technical Assistance to Address Homelessness

Yesterday on grants.gov, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) published the fiscal year 2023 notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) for the Youth Homelessness System Improvement (YHSI) grant program. The NOFO makes approximately $50,000,000 available to support selected communities in either improving existing or establishing and implementing a response system to address youth homelessness. The application deadline date is February 15, 2024. You'll find more information and a link to the NOFO on this page at HUD's Funding Opportunities website.

Additionally, in a press release yesterday, HUD announced a technical assistance strategy to address rural and unsheltered homelessness. The technical assistance will improve coordination of programs and services, support people with lived experience to serve in advisory roles, improve their engagement of people in unsheltered and rural settings, and improve connections to permanent housing with supportive and health services. To further encourage and support PHAs to assist people experiencing homelessness, HUD issued a letter to PHAs encouraging them to take full advantage of HUD resources and regulatory flexibilities to support their work to address homelessness.
