HUD Posts FY 2022 FUP NOFO Materials

Yesterday we reported that HUD's Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) issued a notice in the Federal Register announcing the publication of a preview of the fiscal year 2022 Family Unification Program (FUP) notice of funding opportunity (NOFO) in advance of its publication on Grants.gov. Today, HUD has posted the following materials related to the NOFO:

- 2022 FUP NOFO Federal Register Notice
- 2022 FUP NOFO webinar
- 2022 FUP NOFO FAQs

HUD is making this preview available to allow interested applicants to review the NOFO, submit questions, and prepare applications. The Department intends to publish the NOFO and allow submission of applications in March of 2023.

You can find the links to the materials on the FUP webpage.

HUD Posts Materials for Increasing HCV Leasing Webinar

On the HCV Program Trainings and Resources webpage, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has posted the recording and presentation slides for the "HCV Utilization: Increasing HCV Leasing" webinar that was held on November 17, 2022. During the live web conference, HUD highlighted recent HCV program changes aimed at helping PHAs improve leasing, updated everyone on the recent fair share voucher allocation, and provided a round table discussion with a group of PHAs that significantly increased HCV program leasing in 2022.
