HUD Posts HOTMA Final Rule Resources

On the HOTMA resources webpage, HUD's Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) has posted the following resources related to the implementation of the Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act of 2016 (HOTMA) provisions:

- Preview of HOTMA Final Rule Implementing Sections 102, 103, and 104
- HOTMA Income and Assets Final Rule Highlights
- HOTMA Income and Assets Final Rule Q&A

You can also find a link to a one-page summary of the key HOTMA changes to Multifamily Housing programs on this webpage. HUD will be hosting webinars to provide more information on the updated regulations. The dates and registration information will be posted over the coming months.

HUD to Hold Briefings on AFFH Proposed Rule

The Department of Housing and urban Development (HUD) has announced that it will be holding three virtual briefings on the Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (AFFH) proposed rule that will be published soon in the Federal Register.

According to the announcement, each briefing will cover the main components of the proposed rule. Additionally, HUD will present supplementary information tailored to each type of program participant: Community Planning and Development, Public and Indian Housing, and residents and community members. If you are interested in one or more of these briefings, sign up using the links below:

- Briefing #1: February 6, 2:30-3:30 p.m. Eastern time (planning by Community Planning and Development program participants)
- Briefing #2: February 9, 3:30-4:30 p.m. Eastern time (planning by Public and Indian Housing program participants)
- Briefing #3: February 10, 3:30-4:30 p.m. Eastern time (engagement by residents and community members)

HUD notes, however, that it will not take questions as part of these information briefings. All comments on the proposed rule should be submitted via regulations.gov or through the other methods described in the preamble of the proposed rule. For further information, visit the AFFH webpage.
