PD&R Updates Online Magazine, The Edge

HUD’s Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R) has published some updates to its online magazine, The Edge. One of the updates highlights a permanent supportive housing development in Lakeland, Florida. The 84-unit project, completed in 2023, integrates supportive services to provide a safe environment for lower-income residents, many of whom have histories of addiction or mental health disorders. In another update, PD&R features an article titled “Using Overlays to Enhance the Neighborhood Change Web Map.” For other updates, including an article reflecting on three decades of Cityscape, visit The Edge home page.
