GENERAL NEWS

HUD Launches Revamped Website

In a press release yesterday, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced the launch of a new, streamlined HUD.gov website. The revamped site features about a 90 percent reduction in content from the previous version.

According to the announcement, the former HUD website “was bloated with redundant, outdated, and disorganized content,” making it difficult for users to access critical information needed to find affordable housing, secure shelter, and report issues such as housing discrimination, fraud, waste, and abuse.

The new website features information organized into three easy-to-navigate categories:

- Helping Americans
- HUD Partners
- Researchers

FY 2024 FSS Renewal Grant Funds Now Available for Drawdown

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has announced that FY 2024 Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) renewal grant funds are now available for drawdown for grantees that accepted their awards in GrantSolutions by March 14, 2025.

HUD encourages those that have not yet accepted their grants to do so as soon as possible in order to make funds available. You can check here if your organization still needs to accept its award. Funds will typically be available in eLOCCS within one to two weeks after acceptance.

For technical assistance, contact Help@GrantSolutions.gov. Additional details can be found in the FAQs included in the announcement.
