OLHCHH Announces 2023 Healthy Homes Month

Yesterday HUD’s Office of Lead Hazard Control and Healthy Homes (OLHCHH) announced that June 2023 is National Healthy Homes Month (NHHM). This year’s theme, “Connecting Home, Health, and You,” highlights the key roles played by grantees and their contributions to their communities. According to the announcement, in addition to the primary theme, each week in June will focus on a new topic. All themes are coupled with helpful resources and other information. For further details and related materials, visit the NHHM page at HUD’s website.

HUD Posts Fair Housing Month Education and Outreach Resources

On the HUD Exchange News webpage, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that in line with HUD’s Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO) 2023 Fair Housing Month theme, Choices For All Voices: Building an Equitable Future, the National Fair Housing Training Academy (NFHTA) curated a list of education and outreach resources that can be used to increase the general public’s knowledge of the rights and responsibilities under the Fair Housing Act.

Each April, HUD, local communities, and fair housing advocates and organizations celebrate Fair Housing Month by hosting various activities highlighting HUD’s enforcement efforts, enhancing awareness of fair housing rights, and emphasizing the importance of ending housing discrimination. You can find the links to the education and outreach resources on this page.
