HUD Opens Applications for Veteran Housing Rehab Grants

Wednesday on Grants.gov, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that it is making available $6,445,980 in funding for the Veterans Housing Rehabilitation and Modification Pilot Program (VHRMP). Through the VHRM program, the funds are awarded to nonprofit organizations and may be used to rehabilitate and modify the primary residence of veterans who are low-income and living with disabilities or to provide grantees' affiliates with technical, administrative, and training support in connection with those services. Grants will be competitively awarded up to $1 million each to selected applicants. The application deadline date is August 31, 2023. You can find more information on the VHRM NOFA here.

HUD Announces Latest in PHA Occupancy Webinar Series

On the HUD Exchange News webpage, HUD announced that it will be hosting the latest in its series of webinars on PHA occupancy. The trainings provide PHAs across the country with a series of requirements, conditions, and terms associated with each unit subcategory and improve the performance and management of operating subsidy funds. The training materials help gain a thorough understanding of a wide spectrum of topics related to occupancy as well as the knowledge on how to develop and implement solutions.

The latest scheduled webinar, titled "Best Practices for Achieving Shorter Vacant Unit Turnaround Time," will improve PHA grantee knowledge when PHAs experience issues with low occupancy due to unit vacancy. The webinar will focus on best practices on how to achieve faster unit turns and house families faster. The live web conference is scheduled for Wednesday, June 14, 2023, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Eastern time. Click here for more information, including instructions on how to register.
