OCI Posts PHAS High Performer List for FY 2023 Capital Fund Calculation

HUD's Office of Capital Improvements (OCI) has posted an Excel spreadsheet listing PHAs that were designated high performers under the Public Housing Assessment System (PHAS). The Department used the most recent PHAS designations (6/30/2022) to determine which PHAs received the high performer bonus for the 2023 formula calculation. PHAs are responsible for validating whether they are on the high performer list. If a PHA believes there is an error in the calculation of their PHAS score, it must send an email explaining the error to the Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC) at PHAS@hud.gov. You can find a link to the list on this page.
