NLIHC Publishes Out of Reach 2024

The National Low-Income Housing Coalition (NLIHC) has published Out of Reach 2024, a report on wages and rents throughout the country. In an accompanying press release, NLIHC described this year’s report as follows:

NLIHC’s ‘Out of Reach 2024’ report shows that despite rising wages, cooling inflation, and low unemployment, low-wage workers and other renters with low incomes continue to struggle with the cost of rent. Given the inadequate housing safety net and increasingly unaffordable rents, it is no surprise that homelessness is on the rise. Addressing these challenges requires long-term federal investments in affordable housing and the Housing First model for ending homelessness.

NLIHC has also updated its interactive Out of Reach website that allows users to compare data from their metropolitan area and county with other metropolitan areas and counties within their state.
