HUD Awards Over $36 Million in Mainstream Vouchers and Admin Fees

In a press release yesterday, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) announced that it has awarded more than $36 million for Mainstream Vouchers and additional administrative fees to 218 PHAs in 46 states to assist people with disabilities.

HUD's funding includes $23 million for 2,391 new Mainstream Vouchers that PHAs and disability networks and services partners can use to assist people with disabilities to transition from or avoid institutional settings or exit or avoid homelessness. The grant also includes $13 million in additional administrative fees to help PHAs and their partners support tenants' housing search and navigation, fund landlord engagement activities, and cover other move-in costs.
