HUD Corrects Notice on Stability Voucher Program

Yesterday HUD’s Office of Public and Indian Housing (PIH) issued a corrected version of Notice PIH 2022-24, which was originally published on August 16, 2022, to explain HUD’s noncompetitive allocation strategy and requirements for the Stability Voucher (SV) program. According to the revised document:

HUD is updating this notice to remove the reference to “recently homeless” in the sample certification in Attachment I. Persons with the status of “recently homeless” are not eligible for Stability Vouchers. There is no new funding for Stability Vouchers as part of this correction.

Stability Vouchers (SVs) may assist households experiencing or at risk of experiencing homelessness, fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking or human trafficking; and veterans and families that include a veteran family member that meets one of the proceeding criteria. Persons who are fleeing or attempting to flee human trafficking are an eligible category for SVs.
