HUD Announces Latest in PH Repositioning Webinar Series

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has announced that it will be hosting the latest in its series of training webinars on repositioning public housing. The series enables PHAs to understand multiple aspects of the repositioning process and identify strategies and resources available to successfully complete it. As such, the series is relevant for PHA directors, staff, residents, board members, and others working with PHAs to develop and execute a repositioning strategy.

The latest scheduled webinar, titled "You Have SAC Approval - What Now?," will provide an overview of the steps PHAs must take to implement a Special Applications Center (SAC) approval. According to the announcement, panelists will discuss the following:

- Use agreements and releases of the Declaration of Trust (DOT)
- Applying for Tenant Protection Vouchers (TPVs) and resident relocation
- Impacts on PHAs' operating and capital funding
- Project-Based Vouchers (PBV) at the property
- PIH Information Center (PIC) and proceeds reporting requirements
- Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC) inspections
- Informing HUD of delayed and changed plans
- Repositioning resources available to facilitate a smooth transition

The live web conference is scheduled for Wednesday, September 28, 2022, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Eastern time. Click here for more information, including instructions on how to register.
